

ASHAM Website News

To all ASHAM Members, our website has a BRAND NEW look! If you haven't seen it yet, I suggest you check it out! Members and guests are able to print out membership cards, view the current newsletter, print out complete show bills, and more! Our site is up to date and now more interactive.

While you're there, Login or consider taking advantage and creating a readers account: Having a reader account you can sign up for email notifications that will provide you with new postings, events, news and able to comment on any of the new posting.

An exciting feature about the site is the ability for members to place for sale ads as well as for businesses to place a banner or business card ad. Limited space is available, so please act fast! For business related ads, please contact John Fenger at JohnFenger@aol.com we can go over pricing and terms with you at that time.

The "Star of The Month" section is back in use again as well. If you would like to be a "Star", please email me a picture and a little about yourself, and I will place you in the next available month. This is a first come first serve spotlight, so please go ahead and jump at the opportunity to become a star! We are trying to give every barn the opportunity to have a rider spotlighted, so please participate.

2011 is going to be an exciting new year with many new features to explore and add to the site from education information for horse and rider; youth club news, 2011 Jr. ASHAM club information, activities' and the correspondents with the Saddlebred Salsa makers in Ky. to supply ASHAM with their salsa for the Jr ASHAM club members and the Michigan barn youth groups to sell throughout Michigan at all the events.

We are making great strides with our website and I urge you to use the features to your full advantage! This site is for YOU as a member and can only continue with your support. I am always looking for Michigan news and any constructive comments will be taken in to consideration. If you have any questions, comments, news, or ads please feel free to contact me any time. Go ahead and check out the NEW look of the ASHAM site at www.asham.org!

***We are currently in the process of a testing a new website design and hope you will take the time to look around, please email us if you have any questions or problems. The current testing site is located at www.asham.us Thank you
