

John Fenger

John rejoined the ASHAM board in 2021 and has served as Vice President for the past two years. His commitment to re-establishing and building a grassroots horse shows for ASHAM and its members has been unwavering. With a history of involvement from 2009 to 2018, including a term as President from 2015 to 2018, John's roles have encompassed website design, publishing newsletters, being part of the Horse Shows Committee, and updating the by-laws, among many other responsibilities. His active participation reflects his deep dedication to promoting the Saddlebred breed and educating both youth and adults in Michigan and the Midwest.

Hailing from Lapeer, Michigan, John has been immersed in the world of horses since 1994. His family's love for horses' spans multiple breeds, including Saddlebreds, Saddlebred/Arabian crosses, Arabian/Dutch and Quarter Horses. John's daughter follows in his footsteps, showing Saddlebreds across various states and recently starting to show Half Arabians. As a board member and a dedicated member of ASHAM, ASHA, and MHSA, John continues to champion the American Saddlebred horse. His passion and innovative ideas are driving forces behind the success of ASHAM, making him a valuable asset in building up shows in Michigan and the Midwest.
